Liquor Officers Arrest 12 Juveniles At Theater Beer Drinking Party

Twelve youngsters were picked up by liquor control agents and Sheriff's deputies Saturday night at the Motor-In Theater just north of Walnut Creek for possession of alcoholic beverages.

All of the youngsters were under 18 except one Lafayette youth, just turned 19, who had supplied beer, according to local officials.

The "raid," although not aimed at these youngsters in particular, was carried out because of repeated complaints by the theater management, patrons and neighbors that youngsters were drinking and becoming obstreperous on the premises, said liquor officials.

ALL OF THE YOUTHS were released on their own recognizance, with reports forwarded to the County Probation Department, except the older youth who appeared Monday before Judge John L. Garaventa of the Concord Judicial District for hearing.

He was sentenced to six months probation with 90 days to be spent in the County Jail. However, he is now in the custody of his parents awaiting a review of the sentence.

This youth admitted to Judge Garaventa that he was the supplier of the beer which Liquor Control officers found in the possession of the youngsters.

He refused to tell where he had gotten the beer and pleadede guilty to a misdemeanor charge.

SEVEN INVESTIGATORS from the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board took part in the raid, according to District Administrator Willis Pendergast, who is also liquor control officer.

Authorities admitted that there were other youths present with alcoholic beverages, but that there were not enough officers to take them all into custody.

Pendergast said the youths were charged with violation of Section 25662 which makes it a misdemeanor for any person under 21 years of age to be in possession of any alcoholic beverage.

"Having liquor in and about an automobile really didn't have anything to do with it," he said. "The trouble is, there are lots of things the kids can get involved in with this sort of thing. After all, they do have to drive home, and sometimes they tend to get a little unruly."

Fights nad previously been reported at the theatre, officials said.

TOM HANLIN, COUNTY probation officer, said that no "referrals" had come in on the youngsters as of Wednesday, but that they would probably be forthcoming any day from the arresting officers. He added that he did not know of any previous violations by any of the youngsters.

Regarding disposition of this type of case, Hanlin said:

"It is up to us, usually, to determine what disposition will be made. We can have the parents and the youngsters come in for an interview. Then we can talk the whole thing over and be sure that the parents are aware of the situation.

"BEFORE THE INTERVIEW we ascertain any previous history from school records and other pertinent information. Then, after we have talked to the youngster and parents, we can judge how capable the parents are of handling the situation.

"We can put the child on informal probation, in control of his parents, or, if it is a more serious matter, file a petition to bring the matter before the juvenile court, which then determines the case . . ."

Music, Art, Fun on Tap for Fiesta; Meeting on Plans Is Wednesday Night

A gigantic pep rally and information meeting on the Orinda Fiesta will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Orinda Country Club library.

All interested Orindans, those planning to work on the Fiesta, and those already doing so, are urged to attend, Joseph Creighton said yesterday.

CREIGHTON, chairman of the steering committee in charge of the May 14-15 celebration, will direct Wednesday's meeting.

Here are some highlights planned for the celebration:

Residents Study Feasibility of Special Election

By POLITICUS

Widespread resentment against Chairman H. L. (Jack) Cummings and the other members of the County Board of Supervisors is being openly expressed in the form of a possible recall movement, The SUN learned yesterday.

Possibility of starting a recall movement against Cummings began taking shape several months ago, but Politicus has been informed that the movement has been crystallizing during the past two weeks.

Meetings have been held in the Second Supervisorial District, which Cummings represents, to discuss whether an attempt should be made now to recall Cummings or whether to "hold fire" until next year, when Cummings' term expires.

Cummings' name would be on the ballot in the 1956 primary, and if he did not have effective opposition at that time, he would be re-elected.

UNTIL SOMETHING tangible results, organizations and individuals that have attended the recent meetings do not wish to be identified. However, spokesman have stated that the gatherings have been attended by important community leaders from Orinda, Lafayette, Alamo and Danville.

The two main questions facing these groups are:

1. Should an effort be made to defeat Cummings through recall proceedings or should the effort be delayed until next year's election contest?

2. Who should be selected for replacement of Cummings and how should the selection be made?

SOME OBSERVERS argue that recalls are difficult to arrange and that most people generally are not interested in them.

Many people agree that Cummings can be beaten—so, they argue, why not wait until the 1956 regular election?

PROPONENTS of a recall, however, say that more people are now angry at Cummings' action than at any one time that can be remembered.

Here are a few of the reasons cited for this resentment:

1. All the people from the San Ramon Valley who have been ordered by the supervisors into a special assessment district of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District are "roaring mad."

Offers of substantial amounts of campaign support and finances have come from this area.

2. LITERALLY THOUSANDS of people who live in sections of Lafayette and Orinda bordering Utah Construction Company property and Moraga Valley are indignant over what they consider the "high-handed" and even "astonishing" tactics of Cummings and the other supervisors in relation to the planning of Moraga Valley.

This has been expressed not only by individuals but also by the various planning groups, such as the Emergency Committee for Master Planning for Contra Costa County, the Contra Costa County Women's Planning Council and the Planning League of Contra Costa County.

Almost all organizations in Lafayette and Orinda, as well as those in other communities, have gone on record demanding adoption of a master plan for the Moraga Area.

OBSERVERS ARE keenly aware of the supervisors' attempt to rush Utah Company's zoning requests, Cummings' statement that he didn't understand "what all this agitation over a master plan means" and his criticism of the county's own planning staff by his sarcastic reference to "high-priced planners" from New York and Washington.

3. Another group angry with Cummings and the Board of Supervisors is in Reliez Valley, which apparently is directly affected by the new cemetery ordinance.

THEIR UNDERSTANDABLE resentment is based on the fact that although the proposed cemetery on the former Haviside property had in effect been "kicked out of court," it will apparently now be allowed by the new ordinance.

Oddly enough, most of the people in Reliez Valley and also in some other parts of Lafayette are not in Cummings' district. They're in District 3, represented by Supervisor Ray Taylor.

Some people is District 3 are suggesting that recall proceedings against Taylor be initiated, instead of waiting to defeat Taylor in the 1958 election.

OPPONENTS OF CUMMINGS point to many instances where he has opposed the wishes of the people.

His favoring of the rock quarry near the Glenside district of Lafayette is given as an example. Over the strong opposition of local improvement groups, this quarry was approved by the supervisors.

Another example was the changing of the name of Irvine Drive in Orinda to Rheem Boulevard. While this may seem minor, it was a direct flouting of the sentiment of the people.

Cummings' opponents have term-

Moraga Master Plan Hearing Tonight; Here Is Summary of Major Proposals

"Moraga Valley presents an outstanding opportunity to develop a well-planned semi-urban community."

Under the head of "Why Plan for Moraga," that statement is made in the Contra Costa County Planning Department's "General Plan for the Moraga Area," first public hearing on which will be held at 8 o'clock tonight before the County Planning Commission in Martinez.

The session will be in the meeting room of the Administration Building at Pine and Escobar Streets.

Prepared for submission to the Board of Supervisors May 3, the "General Plan," also referred to as a "master plan," will have a second hearing before the commission at 8 p.m. Tuesday, at which time final commission hearing on Utah Construction Company's zoning application will also be held.

The commission's master plan and zoning findings will be presented to the supervisors May 3, according to County Planning Director Thomas G. Heaton.

(See map of General Plan.)

THE MORAGA AREA master plan prepared by the county planning staff declares:

"If Moraga is developed into the well-planned integrated community that is possible at this time, it could well serve as an example to the state, if not the nation!

"Preservation of the inherent character of the site through blending it with an urban texture while maintaining an attractive, functional community in relation to the surrounding area and region is an objective which only sound, firm planning policy can insure."

MAJOR PROPOSALS for the Moraga Area are summarzied in the General Plan as follows:

"Residential.

"A. Single Family Dwellings.

"The intensity of use of the land will be dictated to a large extent by topographic conditions. Lot sizes will range from 7000 square feet to one-half acre and above.

"B. Two- Family Dwellings.

"A limited amount of two-family housing will be provided to house industrial and commercial employees and school teachers in the area.

"COMMERCIAL.

"1. 185 acres have been provided for commercial and professional facilities to serve an area considerably larger than the Moraga Valley.

"2. Two and ultimately three neighborhood shopping centers of 10 and 15 acres each have been provided to serve the day-to-day needs of residents of the Moraga Valley.

"3. An area to accommodate professional and administrative offices will be provided in the central portion of the planning area.

"CONTROLLED MANUFACTURING.

"100 acres have been allocated for controlled manufacturing use in Moraga.

"SCHOOLS.

"1. Eighteen elementary schools have been provided for with a minimum of 10 acres per site.

"2. One junior high school will be provided in the plan.

"3. One senior high school will be provided.

"COMMUNITY FACILITIES.

"In a commuity having a holding capacity of from 25,000 to 50,000 population, there will obviously be a need for community buildings and facilities.

"Provisions should be made for libraries, auditoriums, churches, club and meeting rooms to serve the cultural and social needs of the community.

"RECREATION.

"In order to provide for the necessary parks and recreation to serve the Moraga Area the General Plan suggests that a community-type park be located in the central part of the area, large enough to provide a golf course, tennis court, swimming pool and open spaces.

"Redwood Canyon and Upper San Leandro watershed land should be used as a regional or county park.

"Additional acreage should be acquired adjacent to school sites to provide community recreation for all age groups.

"CIRCULATION.

"1. The plan recommends what appears to be the most feasible route for the Shepherd Canyon Freeway from the connection at Park Boulevard in Oakland to the junction with Mt. Diablo Boulevard at its intersection with Reliez Station Road.

Master Plan Will Be Completed by Late '56 -- Heaton

The long range master plan for Contra Costa County "should be completed in late 1956," County Planning Director Thomas G. Heaton said in a report submitted to the County Planning Commission Tuesday night.

Principal County Planner H. Russell Griffith said on Wednesday that the report, "Status of Master Plan Work Now Being Conducted by the Advanced Planning Section of the Contra Costa Planning Department," was in answer to the petition filed with the commission last week by the Emergency Committee for Master Planning for Contra Costa County, the Contra Costa County Women's Planning Council and the Planning League of Contra Costa County.

HEATON SAID that of the 14 planning areas, plans for four areas — Clayton Valley, Ygnacio Valley, Orinda and San Ramon Valley — have been completed and "are in the process of public hearings or are ready for public hearings."

The proposed Moraga Area master plan has just been completed and will have its first public hearing before the Planning Commission tonight, with a second hearing to follow on Tuesday night. The Moraga plan will be in the hands

District to Have Open House for 'Schools' Week

As part of the district's celebration of Public Schools Week, Orinda classrooms will have open house for parents and friends next week.

Music and exhibits will be there for all to enjoy, according to Joseph Sheaff, superintendent of schools.

Parents will have an opportunity to meet their children's teachers and see at first hand the work that goes into the modern-day "Three R's Plus" program.

According to Sheaff, the schedule for open house at the various schools is as follows:

Glorietta and Sleepy Hollow—Tuesday, 7 to 9 p.m.

Del Rey—Wednesday, 7 to 9 p.m.

Orinda—Thursday, 7 to 9 p.m.

Proposed Moraga Master Plan Differs Sharply from Utah Company's Requests

Differing sharply from Utah Construction Company requests on certain details, the county planning staff's proposed master plan for the 8300-acre Moraga Area will have its first public hearing before the County Planning Commission at 8 o'clock tonight.

Second hearing will be held at 8 p.m. Tuesday when final commission hearing on Utah's zoning application will also be held. Both matters will be before the Board of Supervisors May 3.

The 185 acres suggested by the county planning staff for business and commercial use include:

Fifty-four acres of retail business in the vicinity of the intersection of Moraga Highway and the proposed freeway route.

Twenty acres of general commercial adjacent to the aforementioned 54-acre area.

Fifty acres of retail business in the vicinity of the intersection of Jonas Hill Road and Rheem Boulevard.

Thirty-one acres of neighborhood business to be concentrated in three neighborhood shopping centers of 15, 10 and 6 acres respectively, designed to provide convenience of access by local residents.

Thirty acres of professional and administrative services to be located adjacent to the 54-acre retail business parcel.

CONTROLLED MANUFACTURING would get 100 acres in the proposed master plan, professional and administrative offices would get 30 acres and communiy facilities would get 30 acres.

Utah Construction Company has asked 109 acres for retail business, 163 acres for commercial, 13 for neighborhood business and 218 for controlled manufacturing.

According to County Planning Director Thomas G. Heaton, Utah Company reresentatives have generally agreed to the planning staff's recommendation regarding residential lot sizes.

These are:

FIFTY ACRES of 8000-square-foot lots (two-family), 265 acres of 7000-square-foot-lots (single-family), 1815 acres of 10,000-square-foot lots (single family), 440 acres of 15,000-square-foot lots (single family) and 1730 acres of half-acre or larger lots (single family).

Recommended by the county planning staff are 500 acres for public and semi-public use and 160 acres for parks and playgrounds.

A 75-acre community park, supplemented by a 30-acre park adjacent to the suggested high school and by 35 acdes of park and recreation land adjacent to grammar schools, is proposed.

"IN ORDER THAT the development be consistent with the provisions of the General Plan, a periodic review of the plan should be made," the county staff states in the section "Description of the Plan."

Stressing that the General Plan should be "flexible," the staff continues:

"There is a total of 8300 acres within the Moraga planning area, of which 78 per cent is buildable. Of the buildable area, the largest percentage is devoted to residential use. . . .

"Lot sizes are smaller near the center and more level areas; larger lots are proposed on the hills and ridges toward the periphery of the community.

"Two areas of 25 acres each are provided for two-family dwellings adjacent to the community core and the Rheem Shopping Center, respectively. It is assumed that such facilities would provide for employees within the Moraga Area."

REGARDING schools, the staff says:

"Considering the ultimate population to be approximately 54,000, there would be a need for 18 elementary schools to accommodate 10,800 pupils. One junior high school will accommodate slightly over 1000 students, and one senior high school will provide facilities for roughly 1500 students.

SHEPHERD CANYON route suggested by the county planning staff is as follows:

"The route would require a high-level tunnel through the Oakland

Orinda May Vote On PIE Proposal For Pine Grove

The people of Orinda may be asked to vote on whether they want Pacific Intermountain Express to build a $750,000 office headquarters at the Pine Grove.

"Balloting seems a very desirable method of settling this problem," Orinda Association President Robert Boyle told some 75 people in Orinda School auditorium Monday night.

Turning to C. E. Johnson, executive vice-president of PIE, Boyle asked if PIE would share expenses of such an election with the Orinda Association.

"I think so," Johnson replied.

"That's the sort of procedure I have in mind," Boyle said. "I want this matter decided fairly and squarely."

However, no action on such a vote was taken Monday night.

Zach Montgomery, past president, said that while balloting might be advisable later, it seemed "premature" to consider it now.

THE MEETING was a joint session of the association's Board of Directors and Civic Affairs Committee, called to hear presentations by PIE and the Orinda Planning Committee.

Johnson, with the aid of projected slides, reiterated the points made last week in the PIE report on its Pine Grove plans.

James Hupp, chairman of the association's Planning Committee, again read his committee's report, which had been presented February 28 to the association board and released last week to the community.

JOHNSON DESCRIBED the planned building as harmonious with the surroundings. "We will not disturb the Pine Grove," he said.

The Planning Committee report maintained that such use of the Pine Grove "would be contrary to several basic principles of planning."

Francis Violich, the Planning Committee's consultant, said:

"WE'RE NOW faced with the fact that another proposal has come on the scene.

"The people of Orinda should take a good look and make their decision.

"This will be the last chance the people of Orinda will have to make a choice on the matter."

VIOLICH pointed out that in his report of February, 1954, "we came up with community center use proposed for the Pine Grove, because a shopping center had been proposed."

"We didn't consider administrative building use of the Pine Grove," he said.

ROBERT BOLMAN said, "Let's work with PIE—let's not just kick people out."

Later he suggested that the Orinda Association "appoint a brand new Planning Committee and get rid of these bad feelings that have grown up."

A mixture of applause and shouts of "No!" greeted this remark.

Civic Affairs Chairman Paul Pollaczek asked those in the audience who felt the same as Bolman to raise their hands. About six people did so.

BOYLE then said:

"The Orinda Association directors have appointed a Planning Committee, and we intend to keep that Planning Committee.

"Orinda is blessed with a lot of talent. I'm sure that we'll come up with an objective report."

POLLACZEK said that as soon as Violich submits his report, he would call a meeting of the Civic Affairs Committee.

Violich estimated that his report would be ready in "about two weeks—probably by May 4."

At one point, Harold Wise, planning consultant for PIE, said, "A very important point is that we're not going to put disjointed, disconnected facilities in the midst of a residential area."

ON DISPLAY in the auditorium were architect's drawings and a small-scale model of the PIE project. The model and two of the drawings are now on view at the American Trust Company.

The Inland Valley Improvement Association, meeting at the home of Dr. Ronald Light on Lavina Court Monday night, unanimously approved the Orinda Association's retaining of Violich to prepare a new report on the Pine Grove.

Meadow Pool, Inc., Seeks Land Use Permit as 250-Family Project Looms

Meadow Pool may open by July 1, according to Frank Leibold Jr., president of Meadow Pool, Inc.

The non-profit corporation recently took an option on a 6-acre site near the intersection of Heather Lane and Valley Drive. The land formerly was owned by Fred T. Wood of Orinda.

A HEARING ON the land use permit for the pool will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. before the County Board of Adjustment.

Brochures explaining the details of the project are being sent to some 570 families in the Moraga Meadows and Glorietta Improvement Association areas, Leibold said.

Meadow Pool, Inc., is expecting a permit momentarily from the state, granting the group the right to solicit money for the pool, Leibold said.

SOME 250 FAMILIES will be served by the pool and are eligible to join the project on a "first come, first served" basis.

Leibold said construction should start as soon as the land use permit is obtained, and that the pool should be completed in "six to eight weeks."

"We hope to have it open by July 1," he said.

Mason Pools of Lafayette has submitted low bid for construction. Cost of construction and maintenance for one year is estimated at $50,000.

INITIAL MEMBERSHIP will cost each family $240, which includes $40 excise taxes, Leibold said. With the application, each family must submit $25. Yearly dues are estimated at "$20 to $30."

Details on such items as transfer of membership when a family moves away are being worked out, Leibold stated.

The non-profit corporation's board of directors has been working on plans to improve the entrance to the projected pool area at Glorietta Boulevard and Heather Lane.

Opposition to the group's pool plans has centered on "the safety factor" at that intersection, Leibold said. He added the group has a letter from the County Highway Department asserting that work on improving the intersection will be included in next year's budget.

APPLICATIONS FOR membership will be sent to "Meadow Pool, Post Office Box 14, Orinda."

Those on the board of directors include:

Leibold, president and director; Carlisle B. Lane, vice-president; Eleanor Haefele, secretary; Carl R. Moore Jr., treasurer and director.

Other directors are Francis F. Allen Jr., Randell Cook, Charles H. Currier, Edward M. Hicks and Fin W. Thrane. L. McDonald Chapman is membership chairman.

The community project was started over a year ago.

Dental Officer Speaks at Rotary Club Anniversary

Orinda Rotarians celebrated their sixth anniversary Wednesday noon at the Willows.

Past presidents cut and served a huge cake to members and their guests.

The club heard Dr. Zachary Stadt, assistant county health officer in charge of dentistry, speak on dental problems.

Dr. Stadt said the county health department has estimated fluoridation of the county's water would reduce tooth decay by 50 per cent, and save about 11 million dollars in dental bills, even after figuring the cost of inaugurating and maintaining the fluoridation program.

He said a survey conducted in the county shows there is one dentist to each 2700 persons. This compares to the national average of one dentist per 1700 persons.

A survey conducted among county school children has discovered only 15 to 20 per cent of the students have good teeth, or teeth without cavities.

One-third of those students checked needed emergency work done on their teeth, Stadt reported.

Roof Fire Stopped

Orinda firemen Saturday quenched a blaze on the roof of the Lawrence Ambrose residence, 130 Crest View Drive.

Fire Chief H. E. Wyatt reported that a 3-square-foot patch on the shake roof caught fire, "apparently from a burning piece of paper from someone else's fireplace."

Wyatt said there was no fire in the Ambrose fireplace, leading him to believe the blaze started in the manner described.

Damage was tentatively estimated at $20, Wyatt reported.

State to Build Orinda Bus Stop, Commuters Say

The State Highway Commission Wednesday afternoon appropriated $15,000 for construction of a bus stop off the freeway in Orinda, according to a surprise announcement by L. A. Weymouth, district engineer for the State Division of Highways in San Francisco.

Weymouth made the announcement at a special meeting of the Marin County board of supervisors in San Rafael Wednesday night.

THE SPECIAL meeting, which delegates from the Contra Costa County Commuters Association attended, was for the purpose of considering the problem of freeway bus stops.

George Cummings and John McKirahan of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association were the delegates from this area.

Said Cummings, "We went to that meeting because of our two-and-a-half-year failure to achieve anything about an Orinda bus stop at the Interchange."

Cummings added, "Weymouth's announcement caught us by surprise—and really made us happy."

AT PRESENT, Oakland-bound buses stop just west of the north bridge of the Interchange on the highway. Eastbound buses load and unload passengers in front of Orinda Pharmacy.

Commuter groups, along with the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, have long sought a solution to the problem of bus stops at the Interchange.

Those in attendance at the Marin County meeting were urged by the supervisors to write their representatives in the State Legislature asking support for bills pending, two of them by Assemblyman Don Doyle, setting a policy for construction of bus stops on freeways.

CUMMINGS SAID, "We were impressed by how hard the Marin County board of supervisors worked on that county's special problem Wednesday night."

He explained the meeting had been called because no provision has been made for bus stops on the proposed Alta Wye Interchange in Marin County.

He and McKirahan attended to see how the Marin commuters worked on the problem. The announcement about the Orinda project came during a discussion.

Orioles to Meet

The home of Mrs. Richard Gould, 50 Tappan Lane, will be the scene Wednesday for the monthly meeting of the Orioles, auxiliary unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

Dessert will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Co-hostesses are Mesdames Calvert Bowles, Leo Lemire and Joseph McClary.

Officers Guard Lives of Boysens as Extortion Investigation Continues

An around-the-clock guard on the Walter Boysen family of 33 Lombardy Lane in Sleepy Hollow continues as county sheriff's officers and Oakland police follow leads developed in the $75,000 extortion case.

Boysen, wealthy Oakland paint manufacturer, received a note March 14 at his office threatening his and his family's lives if he did not produce $75,000.

THE NOTE WARNED:

"Please have $75,000 within 30 days. Have several $1000 bills. Also $100s and other denominations. You will be contacted again after you place the following advertisement in the San Francisco Examiner:

"Henry — contact me. Urgent. W.B."

"Don't notify the police. Don't make the mistake other people have made in the past. Unless you comply, you, your wife, or one of your small daughters will be killed."

BOYSEN CONTACTED Oakland police. Contra Costa County Sheriff Harry A. Brown was notified.

Cars from both departments patrolled the area around the Boysen home. Other protective measures, including the placing of three members of the two departments in the Boysen home as "houseguests," were taken.

The family consists of Boysen, his wife, Josephine, and daughters Lolita, 12, and Joanne, 8.

Police and sheriff's officers began checking a list of suspects.

BOYSEN, ACTING on police orders, placed the first ad in the Examiner April 5. Nothing happened. The ad ran again the next day.

That night, April 6, a man with a soft, drawling voice, identifying himself as "Henry" phoned the Boysen residence. Boysen was instructed to go to a pay phone booth near the Orinda Theater and wait for a second call.

He received a call there directing him to go to another pay phone booth at the Orchard Nursery. A "dummy" package of cut-up newspapers was prepared beforehand.

Sheriff's Inspector Ray Stoffels huddled in the rear seat of Boysen's car.

AT THE SECOND pay booth, Boysen was directed to go on down Mt. Diablo Boulevard, turn right at the second stop signal in Lafayette, drive out Jonas Hill Road about 2½ miles and throw the package in a culvert near the Rheem Shopping Center.

Boysen dropped the package there. Officers staked out in groves of willow trees on either side of the culvert, armed with shotguns and equipped with walkie - talkies, watched the scene.

The officers maintained the watch through Friday afternoon, April 8. When "Henry" had not arrived by that time, the watch was removed.

Boysen retrieved the package, took it home, and when no further word was received from "Henry," police instructed Boysen to insert a second ad in the paper. It read: "Henry. What happened? W.B."

WHEN NO REPLY was received, police removed the shroud of secrecy last Friday.

Among those who stayed at the Boysen home as houseguests during the family's earlier ordeal were Oakland Policewoman Shirley Crawford, County Sheriff's Inspector Stoffels and Sheriff's Sergeant Walter Young.

Investigators are checking the connection between the Boysen death threat and an extortion plot against Aaron Frank, owner of a Portland, Ore., department store.

A BOMB WAS exploded in Frank's store Friday as he was reading a note threatening a more destructive blast if he did not pay $50,000.

Police pointed to the facts that the note in the Frank case compared in style to that given to Boysen, and that Boysen and Frank have been friends for over 30 years, as evidence linking the two cases together.

The Boysens, as did the Franks, returned from Honolulu trips shortly before the notes were delivered, police pointed out.

Captain John Jagard of the sheriff's office said yesterday, "We're convinced the man or men responsible for the notes mean to make an attempt to injure the family. That's why we are continuing to guard the family carefully."

The search for "Henry" has produced many leads, he added, but he could not estimate if an arrest was forthcoming soon.

Officers Crack Down on BB Shooters

Sheriff's officers are "cracking down" on juveniles shooting air rifles in Orinda, it was reported this week.

Two 14-year-old Orindans, both students at Acalanes High School, were caught at 5:30 p.m. Friday by Deputy Sheriff Bud Hobert, after they shot the window out of a passing car on Camino Sobrante.

THE YOUTHS, according to Hobert, admitted shooting at other cars and at windows in the area. They were ordered to appear last Tuesday at the County Probation Office in Martinez.

According to John Davis, the probation officer, one boy appeared with his parents, who promised to make restitution for damage done.

The other youth's appearance was delayed until today because of illness, Davis said.

C. L. Dewitt Jr., 11 La Cuesta, was the victim of the shooting incident that led to the youths' capture.

HE REPORTED to the Walnut Creek substation that, while driving north on Camino Sobrante near Lake Cascade Friday, the rear window of his Cadillac was shattered by a pellet.

Hobert said other incidents have been reported, such as the shooting of ducks in the lake, lights and windows in the Country Club and windows of homes.

He added, "Not all of this is by the two I caught. There are so many kids up there shooting BB guns."

AMONG OTHERS reporting damage was Mrs. John Tokich, 170 Camino Sobrante, who said a window of her house was shattered by a BB shot.

W. R. Anderson, 1 Las Aromas, reported a window of his home was shot out last Friday by three BB pellets.

Other homes have been hit, as well as passing cars, Hobert said.

Mrs. Lillian Dorrington Honored for School Service

"I certainly was surprised — it was a wonderful party," said Mrs. Lillian Dorrington after some 225 persons honored her Sunday afternoon for her 25 years of service to the Orinda School District.

The party was held at Glorietta School. Former teachers, trustees, students and members of her family gathered at the school's multi-purpose room.

MRS. DORRINGTON, secretary at the district office in Orinda School, was "lured" to the surprise party by Mrs. Verna Givens, sixth grade teacher at the latter school.

Mrs. Givens told Mrs. Dorrington there was an art exhibit going on at the time at Glorietta School. Mrs. Dorrington said, "No such event has been cleared through the district office."

She finally consented to investigate. When Mrs. Dorrington came through the door, the crowd applauded and sang, "School Days."

THE PROGRAM included a "This Is Your Life" show, giving incidents in Mrs. Dorrington's life, dating from her early childhood in England and including her working at a Coventry war factory during World War I.

Mrs. Dorrington came to work for the district in 1929 as a custodian and maintenance worker. At the time there were 20 children, including four of her own — in attendance at Orinda School.

As secretary now, she can readily point out that present enrollment is about 2000 students in the district.

At the party Sunday, Mrs. Dorrington, who lives at 600 Orinda Highway, received a gift tree to which 165 silver dollars were attached, a bouquet of roses presented by Superintendent of Schools Joseph Sheaff, flowers flown in from Hawaii and a charm bracelet consisting of paper clips, erasers, pencil stubs, crayons and other school items.

A POTLUCK supper was served.

It was announced that the district's first year book, to be published this year, will be dedicated to her.

Among those present were George Brockhurst, an early trustee, and his wife; Mrs. George Kirby, one of the early-day students; and Mrs. George Grant of Berkeley, one of the school's first teachers.

Three of Mrs. Dorrington's children, Mrs. John Cataline of Orinda, Mrs. Victor Guz of San Francisco, and Stanley Dorrington of Concord, also attended.

The fourth child and Mrs. Dorrington's husband are deceased.

Frank Isola, physical education supervisor for the district, organized the party.

County Inoculations Near as Shipment Of Salk Vaccine Arrives in Berkeley

A shipment of Salk anti-polio vaccine was received by the California State Health Department in Berkeley last night and will be packaged this afternoon for distribution throughout Contra Costa County, announced Dr. Beryl Graham, county assistant health officer.

Dates for inoculations to county children have as yet not been set.

THE CALIFORNIA HEALTH Department had sent out letters Monday to county doctors and schools explaining that Contra Costa, hardest hit by polio last year in proportion to population, was slated to be one of the last counties in the state to receive the Salk serum for its children.

Dr. Graham disclosed she had called the State Department of Public Health again Tuesday to ask if any new development of study of last year's records had made a change regarding Contra Costa, but was unable to talk to department officials, who were in conference.

"We can't make any plans. We have informed the physicians and the schools of the situation. As far as we know the vaccine is still first going to southern California," Dr. Graham said.

MEANWHILE, HUNDREDS of thousands of children in the country received their first inoculations of Salk anti-polio vaccine Monday as the biggest mass assault in history on infantile paralysis got under way.

Korean Vet Tells Need for Clothing

"If you can imagine a climate like that of Maine and little children clothed in a single garment — a shirt that ends near the waist — then you'll know that as a member of the human race you must act in love, and you'll open your closets and send good warm clothes to Korea."

This is the statement of Major Gordon West of Lafayette about the clothing drive now being sponsored in this vicinity by the American Friends Service Committee.

Major West has just returned from a tour of duty in Korea and thus knows at first hand about conditions there.

"Koreans are making definite progress toward solving their clothing problems, but the millions of refugees make it imperative that they have help for the next two years. One good warm garment will save hours of cruel suffering and may actually save a life," says Russell Jorgensen, representative of the AFSC and responsible for the clothing drive now going on.

The drive will continue for the rest of this week and may be extended through next week.

The depots are at the Farmers Feed and Supply Company on Locust Street in Walnut Creek; at 3653 Mt. Diablo Boulevard next to the Super Saver Market in Lafayette, and the Orinda Community Church, Orinda.

Women who can volunteer some time as sorters are asked to report to the Lafayette depot any time between the hours of 9 and 5.

Four Cars Smash In Blvd. Tangle

A four-car pile-up resulted in injuries to three persons at the intersection of Mt. Diablo Boulevard and El Curtola Boulevard the night of April 14, the county office of the California Highway Patrol reported.

Drivers involved were Horace C. Sullivan of 2 La Vinda, Orinda, Benjamin T. Anderson, 1230 Kendall Court, Walnut Creek, Freeman C. Kesler, 3195 Stanley Boulevard, Lafayette, and Ora J. Thompson of Palm Beach, Fla.

ACCORDING TO the CHP, Sullivan was more seriously injured, sustaining face lacerations and possible injuries to the chest.

The other drivers were shaken up and 4-year-old Ronald Kesler, a passenger in his fathers' car, received a bump on his head.

The boy's father reported Ronald has been treated by the family physician.

The CHP reported Sullivan at first refused treatment for his injuries, then later complained of chest pains and was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital by th Pomeroy Ambulance Service of Walnut Creek.

HOSPITAL AUTHORITIES reported Sullivan was released after an overnight stay, but would not divulge the extent of his injuries.

A citation was issued Sullivan for following too closely and driving at an unsafe speed, the CHP said.

The accident reportedly occurred when Sullivans' car struck the rear of Anderson's car, throwing it into the path of the two other cars coming from the opposite direction.

Trucks from the Lafayette Fire Department were called when sparks from the wreck threatened to ignite a gas tank.

Services Held For Dr. Wood

A farewell service was held Monday afternoon for Dr. Frederick W. Wood of 3345 Ridge Road. Dr. Wood died suddenly Saturday.

A retired director of veterinary medicine at the Cutter Laboratories in Berkeley, Dr. Wood had lived in Lafayette three years.

He was a native of Canada and a graduate of the Cornell Veterinarian School. He had lived in the Bay Area since 1914. He served with the laboratory until his retirement in 1946.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ethel May Wood; a son, John, of Oakland; three daughters, Mrs. Ellen Mohan of Glendale, Mrs. Georgina E. Agnew of Salinas and Mrs. Dorothy C. Campbell of Holland, nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy J. Harrison of Orinda and Mrs. Greta F. Lynch of Oakland, and a brother, G. Dwight Wood of Berkeley.

Dr. Laurance L. Cross of the Northbrae Community Church in Berkeley officiated at the rites, held at the Little Chapel of the Flowers, Berkeley.

Services Today For Mrs. Wilder

Funeral services for Mrs. Winnifred Edith Wilder will be held today at 1:30 p.m. at the Little Chapel of the Flowers, 1139 Saranap Boulevard at Tunnel Road, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Wilder, 57, died Wednesday morning in an Oakland hospital after a long illness. She had lived at 760 John Way in Lafayette Woodlands for 15 years, and was a resident of the Bay Area 37 years.

Until last July, when she was forced to retire because of illness, Mrs. Wilder worked in the Berkeley office of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company as a long-distance operator. She had been employed there 33 years.

Mrs. Wilder, a native of Oregon, is survived by her husband, Albert, of the Lafayette address, a daughter, Mrs. Virginia Badger, and a granddaughter, Christine Badger, both of Walnut Creek.

Officiating at the services will be the Rev. Chester R. Lewis, pastor of the Lafayette Community Methodist Church. The deceased had been a member of that church.

Interment will be at Memory Gardens, Concord.

Master Plan Will Be Completed by Late '56 -- Heaton

of the Board of Supervisors by May 3.

"TIME TABLE, or target dates, for other planning areas" is given as follows in the report:

Lafayette, June; Pleasant Hill, September; Pacheco-Martinez, November; Antioch, December, and El Sobrante, December.

"It is anticipated the the general plans for the remaining four planning areas will be completed in the early part of 1956," the report says. These four areas are Alamo-Danville, Crockett-Rodeo, Pittsburg and Oakley-Brentwood.

"UPON COMPLETION of the general area plans, they will be integrated into the over-all master plan for the county," Heaton's report concludes. "This plan will consist of maps and reports on all major phases of planning in the county."

The report states that from June 1, 1953, through February 28, 1955, a total of $42,350.47 has been spent for salaries of the technical staff on master plan work.

For seven to nine months after the master plan program was initiated, the entire Advanced Planning Section "was involved in drafting work,' because of "lack of adequate base maps," it is pointed out.

In addition to adequate base maps and to work on general plans for specific areas, the following was accomplished since its formation in July, 1953, by the Advanced Planning Section, headed by Richard Stockwell, is listed:

1. SHORELINE PLAN for recreational development has been completed, has been adopted by the commission and the Board of Supervisors and is now under review by the State Division of Beaches and Parks.

2. Completion of a study of countywide population estimates for the future.

3. An existing land use study has been completed for the entire county.

4. Assisted a number of school districts in studies to help them select new school sites.

5. COLLECTED DATA for the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit Commission.

6. Completed a preliminary survey in the Briones area for possible county park use.

7. Completed a study on extension of Mt. Diablo State Park.

8. "Many small studies and reports have been prepared in connection with new subdivisions, shopping centers, off-street parking, rezoning, etc."

9. Initiated or studied 17 road proposals in the county's General Highway Plan.

"CONSIDERABLE TIME is consumed by the Advanced Planning Section in meetings with the public and explaining and administering the general plans that have been completed," the report says.

Heaton pointed out that until recently the Advanced Planning Section consisted of three planners and two draftsmen.

However, since last Friday a research analyst has been added, "to speed up population forecasts and to compile base studies for the planning areas and the county as a whole."

Citizen Group Pushes Fight For Master Plan

"We are prepared to use every legal means to accomplish proper planning in the county," Robert Guichard told the membership meeting of the Emergency Committee for Master Planning for Contra Costa County at Lafayette Town Hall Tuesday night.

Guichard, program chairman for the gathering, told approximately 100 persons that the county "is being destroyed by zoning."

He added that the county has spent $157,000 on its planning program for the past two years "without accomplishing anything."

MAIN SPEAKER was William Findley, Richmond city planning director, who talked on "Master Planning and How to Achieve It."

"You can't possibly develop a county without a master plan," he said.

Findley showed slides depicting planning in the Richmond area.

Membership Chairman Walter Tickner reported that, of 150 improvement associations throughout the county, the Emergency Committee had contacted 108 associations.

HE STATED that 15 two-man teams from the Emergency Committee's speakers bureau will visit the various groups, to discuss the problem of master planning.

The committee actually is "a congress of improvement clubs," as stated in the organization's constitution, he pointed out.

Mrs. Mildred Farrar of the organization's board said yesterday that member groups are from points such as Kensington, El Sobrante and Danville, as well as from the Lafayette-Orinda-Walnut Creek-Moraga area.

AT THE TUESDAY night meeting Richard Graves talked against Anthony Lagiss' application for a special neighborhood business district along Pleasant Hill Road, across from Acalanes High School. He said rezoning "would establish a dangerous precedent."

Lagiss' application is under advisement by the County Planning Commission.

At an Emergency Committee board meeting April 14 at Mrs. Farrar's home on El Toyonal, Orinda, Morton Gleason of the Grayson Valley Improvement Association was made a director.

A written test will be required of all contestants as a pre-requisite for entering. Students at Acalanes High School may enter by checking with the driving instructor.

For those not attending high school, a room will be available at Acalanes at 7:45 p.m. May 5, in which entry blanks may be turned in and the written test completed.

THOSE IN THE latter category may also complete the form at the bottom of this article and mail it to Lafayette-Orinda Jr. Chamber of Commerce, 6 El Nido Court, Orinda.

The two top winners of the May 7 competition will be awarded a trip to the state finals at Fresno. State winners will compete in the National Teen-Age Road-e-o, sponsored by the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce and the National Truckers Association.

The local contest will be judged by the local Jaycees and representatives of the Sheriff's Department and the California Highway Patrol, according to Bob Boyles of Orinda, chairman of the event.

BOYLES URGES girls to enter the contest as well as boys. "You don't have to be a hotrod fan to enjoy this contest," Boyles adds.

We Lose an Hour Sunday Morning!

Attention all late sleepers and everyone else:

Daylight saving time goes into effect at 1 a.m. Sunday.

At that time, if you're awake, you should move the clock up to 2 a.m. Or you can move the clock ahead an hour before you go to bed.

Or better yet, wait until you wake up Sunday morning to lose the hour.

Based on past experience, the time changeover should be one of hectic and confusing incidents, especially when Monday morning rolls around and offices who failed to move their clocks ahead find workers rolling in an hour early, or an hour late.

Now, who's confused?

Anyway, we all lose an hour Sunday. Take heart. We'll get that hour back next fall.

It's like money in the bank.

Chamber to Vote May 17 on Pine Grove Reports

Chamber of Commerce directors voted 8-1 Tusday noon to bring the controversial Pine Grove study to a vote of the general chamber membership May 17.

The deciison was made at a meeting in the Willows, after an extensive discussion of pros and cons on delaying the vote.

PRESIDENT ERNEST Poll, recommending the move, said:

"The chair feels that it would be in the best interests of the chamber, and in the best democratic way, if the general membership of the chamber could have an occasion to express their wishes on the matter by a vote."

The chamber will hear a report by the executive vice-president of Pacific Intermountain Express, C. E. Johnson.

That report, to include film slides of the company's proposed office building in the Pine Grove and a discussion by Johnson, will be presented at the May 3 meeting of the chamber.

A representative of the Orinda Planning Committee has also been invited to present the opposing report, Poll said.

DIRECTOR JOHN Ogden said a report by Francis Violich, consultant to the Orinda Association, would be ready "in about two weeks." Ogden said the Violich Pine Grove report could be studied for another two weeks and would give chamber members a chance to decide how to vote by the May 17 meeting.

The members will vote, by secret ballot, on which of the two reports to endorse.

Voting on new chamber officers will also be held at the May 17 membership meeting.

A nominating committee will present a slate of candidates. Ned DeLaveaga and E. J. Phair were appointed to the committee, along with W. E. Friberg, chairman, Paul Vashell and Ramsay Underwood.

DeLAVEAGA REPORTED traffict problems have arisen due to trucks parking on the feeder road in front of his service station.

Horace Breed of the chamber's parking and bus sheleter committee said he would investigate the situation.

Breed also said that when the countys' parking survey is completed, two-hour parking restrictions would be enforced strictly. He stated a warning will be given to motorists that the Sheriff's Department will enforce the limits.

CLARENCE BETZ, secreary proem of the chamber, reported a letter has been written to the State Highway Commission asking that body to put up a new Orinda Village sign.

The old signs had been removed during the interchange construction.

Fiesta queen candidates were introduced by Joseph Creighton, chairman of the Fiesta steering committee, who told the chamber of progress on the planning for the event.

Refreshments will be served after the formal program.

In extending an invitation to the Acalanes High School community to participate in the observance of Public School Week, Principal Walgren stated, "We hope our open house program will afford everyone in the community, public and parents, with an opportunity to view the school facilities, personnel and rogram that make up the daily work of the Acalanes High."

Thieves Hit Snack Bar at Country Club

Sheriff's deputies are investigating the burglary of the snack bar at the 11th tee of the Orinda Country Club.

Deputy Bud Hobert said the snack bar was broken into either Monday night or early Sunday morning and an undetermined amount of cigarettes, candy, beer, golf balls and small change was taken.

Entry was made by prying open a window. Hobert said the size of fingerprints found at the scene would indicate the theft was committed by juveniles.

Showers Prevail In Orinda Area

Decked out in a brand-new rain coat and wearing a broad grin for a hat, Orinda's weather bird flew in with the obvious announcement:

"It's raining!"

A chorus of "We know, we know," greeted this world-shaking news.

The bird's prideful grin vanished and he glumly tossed the weeks' notes away.

That's why we can only say that up to yesterday morning, 1.42 inches of rain fell on us over the week. This brought the season's total to 21.70 inches.

Here are the temperatures:

	High	Low
April 14	60	38
April 15	63	33
April 16	59	34

ed him a "spokesman for selfish interests." They claim he acts primarily for the interests of builders and developers.

Also, they say that regardless of how people are affected individually, many people in this area feel that Cummings makes no real effort to represent the basic feelings of his constituents in Central Contra Costa County.

A resident of Crockett, Cummings is head of the Crockett Electric Company of Crockett and Pleasant Hill. This is one of the largest electrical firms in the county.

AS TO POSSIBLE candidates against Cummings:

Some people have indicated they intend to run in the regular election in 1956. Others have been thought of as possible candidates in a recall election.

Among names "buzzed about" as possible candidates are those of Joe Creighton, Boone Robinson, Frank Pereira, Commander Tom Stephens, Harold Mutnick, Jack Pedder, Gladys Schwatka, Ray Van Tassell, Gerald Deardorff, James Hupp and Craig Bull.

"Such a route would require the use of cut-and-fill.

"On reaching the valley floor, the route would continue to a point near St. Mary's College, where it would follow generally along St. Mary's Road.

"Near the St. Mary's Orchards subdivision the route would swing northeasterly and intersect with Mt. Diablo Boulevard in the vicinity of the present intersection with Pleasant Hill Road."

"2. Camino Pablo should be extended west to connect with Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

"3. Moraga Highway should be extended east and south to connect with Camino Pablo at a point near the Carr Ranch.

"4. St. Mary's Road should be improved and used when possible for a service road to the freeway.

"5. A county road should be planned north and parallel to Moraga Highway in order to provide better access to both future freeways."

St. Stephen's Auxiliary Meets

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Stephen's met April 13 at the home of Mrs. John Den Dulk.

When the refreshments had been served, Mrs. Robert Bigler, chairman of the auxiliary, opened the meeting. Members held a discussion on plans for a luncheon and card-party to be held in St. Stephen's undercroft next Friday noon.

Mrs. W. E. Christie gave an inspiring devotional.

Speaker for the day was Mrs. Grace Mauerhan, Berkeley interior decorator. Her subject was "Interior Decorating." She delighted her audience with her contrast of ideas of 25 years ago and the present.

The next auxiliary meeting will be held May 4 and the guest speaker will be Dr. Rodenmayer, a member of the faculty of the Pacific School of Religoin.

Church Auxiliary Meets Next Friday

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church will hold a luncheon and card party at St. Stephen's undercroft next Friday noon.

It was unanimous. Hostesses and guests alike were more than enthusiastic in their praise of the "Saluate to Spring" dessert and card party presented by the Lafayette Larks from 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. April 12.

Ten attractive homes were open for the affair, in each one a hostess and three or four co-hostesses presiding.

THE MEMBERS who offered their homes were Mesdames L. Barnum, D. Fibush, R. Graves, T. Grewe, W. Harris, R. Hoedel, T. Jacobson, P. Marchant, J. Shierry and L. Stanley.

Assisting by preparing and serving the goodies were Mesdames S. Sibley, A. Warburton, M. Jellett, W. Racine, R. Underhill, L. Capra. R. Klitgaard, A. Farrell, N. Sondag, G. McAuliffe, K. Ingraham, A. Rain Plays Havoc with Schedules

Weather Picture Will Determine Preps' Schedule

Rains the past week have played havoc with schedules, with the result that events have been postponed, with few exceptions.

Las Lomas had a track meet scheduled with Albany yesterday, but it was washed out, and action next week is scheduled for Thursday at Concord, with the Diablo Red Devils, starting at 3:30 p.m.

Next Wednesday the Las Lomas swimmers meet San Ramon's best at the Walnut Creek pool, starting at 3:30.

THE KNIGHT baseball team, weather permitting, will have a busy week, hosting Pittsburg Tuesday and going to Diablo's diamond Thursday (April 28). Both games are slated to start at 4 p.m.

The Knights' J.V. horsehiders host Diablo Thursday.

In golf, the Knights host the Alhambra swingers on Monday at 4 p.m. on the Diablo Country Club course.

THE PLEASANT HILL Rams play golf the same day, hosting San Ramon at the Contra Costa Club links.

The Ram swimmers meet an undisclosed opponent in the Diablo pool at 3:30 Wednesday.

The Ram track team is prepared to take part in the Alhambra Relays tomorrow if the oval dries out sufficiently to run the meet.

On Thursday the thinclads end their dual meet season in a 3:30 p.m. meet with Liberty at Brentwood.

THE HIGH-RIDING Ram baseballers have a pair of league games on tap, meeting Acalanes at Acalanes Tuesday, while the J.V.'s tangle at Pleasant Hill.

On Thursday the Rams play Antioch at Antioch.

THE ACALANES Dons, as stated, host the Rams in baseball Tuesday.

They play Pittsburg at the Steel City Thursday.

Track is tentatively set for a meeting with El Cerrito at El Cerrito on Tuesday, but it will be Wednesday in event the Alhambra Relays are postponed.

If the Alhambra Relays are on tomorrow the Dons will be there in force for the opening relay event at 1 p.m.

The Don swimmers will hit the water Wednesday when they host Drake of Marin County.

Pleasant Hill Nine Chalks Up Season's Upset

The Pleasant Hill Rams, under the guiding hand of Coach Lyle Palmer, pulled the baseball upset of the prep season when they racked the Diablo Devils in no uncertain fashion Tuesday by an 11-8 score.

The league game, played at the Pleasant Hill diamond, was the only one played, as the Pittsburg-Antioch and Acalanes-Las Lomas games were postponed due to wet grounds.

The victory sent the Rams into second place in the Contra Costa Division of the Diablo Valley League.

Pittsburg leads with a 3-0 record, the Rams have 3-1 and the Acalanes Dons are next in line, 2-1.

THE DEVILS started with a bang when they tallied five runs in the opening frame, paced by the bat of Dan Colchio, who rapped out a homer with two on.

The Devils scored two more, to go out in front 5-0.

The Rams came back to score a run in the second, while Diablo made it 6-1 in the top of the third with another lone run.

THE RAMS, in the bottom of the third, tallied three, bringing the count to 6-4.

In the fifth it was scoreless, but things really exploded in the sixth.

Diablo scored a run but then the Rams went on a six-run barrage on five walks, two errors and singles by Steve Buckman and Bill Nixon.

THAT PUT Rad Atnip, the Devils' soph sensation, to the showers, with Jerry Robinson taking over.

The Rams added a run in the sixth, and Diablo added one in the seventh to register the all-important Ram win.

Diablo outhit the Rams 8-5 but also outbooted them, 4 errors to 2.

Johansen went the route on the mound for the winners, with Buckman receiving.

Littorno took the behind-the-plate position for the Devils.

Tennis Players Of Knights Whip Diablo Team 7-0

The Las Lomas tennis team made a grand slam when it trounced the Diablo Devils on the Las Lomas courts in league play April 14, winning all matches for a one-sided 7-0 victory.

In first singles, Dick Overstreet outstroked Diablos' Herman cordes, 6-2, 6-4.

In the o. 2 singles Roger Snyder tripped Bill Morse 8-6, 6-0.

Jon French took the third singles from Charles Clark 2-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Ron Ray measured Diablo's Gordon Knapp 6-3, 8-6, while in match No. 5 Bob Adler won from John West 6-2, 6-0.

In the doubles it was Overstreet and Snyder 7-5, 6-2, with Cordes and Moore the victims.

The No. 2 doubles found Ray and Adler taking the match from Clark and Knapp 6-2, 6-3, to round out a perfect afternoon for the Knights.

Don Golfers Stay Undefeated, Beat Knight Divoters

The Acalanes golfers kept their record at an all-win level when they defeated Las Lomas in a league match at Diablo Country Club Monday.

Through an error in reporting, an earlier article stated the Dons had a loss in their record, but up to the present they are undefeated.

The Dons outstroked the Las Lomas Knights in decisive fashion as they took every match for a 6-0 score.

Members of the Don team and scores:

Larry Collins 41, Wally Marsh 42, Wendell Williams 48, Chip Peacock 50, Mike Downs 51 and Wade Wallace 52.

The Knights and their scores.

Sideline Slants

Baseball, Track, Swim Competitions Upset Pre-Season's Prep Predictions

By ERWIN MATTSON

THE WEATHER MAN has sent but little in the way of rain in recent weeks, and as a result sport schedules are right on time.

Track hasn't had a postponement, and while baseball had one the games were easily made up following Easter vacation.

The baseball race is a keen one. While Pittsburg is currently leading the pack by virtue of its 5-4 win over Acalanes, the Pirates are by no means a shove-in.

EVERY CLUB in the circuit has improved since the season's start. The new members, the Las Lomas Knights and Pleasant Hill Rams, look capable of defeating anyone on a given day.

Antioch hasn't an impressive record to date but things will be tough on visitors at the Antioch "rock pile."

Antioch has a new school with athletic fields in the construction stage, and as a result the Panthers are playing home games on the Antioch Fair Grounds, which have an infield like a corrugated washboard and the sun in the batter's eyes along in the late innings.

In addition, the rightfield fence is slightly over 200 feet away, making what often would be an easy out a safe blow. Under such conditions anything can and probably will happen, particularly if the notorious Antioch winds are in full gale!

TODAY is a big day for track fans who will have an opportunity to see the local three in a triangular meet.

The scene of action will be the Pleasant Hill oval, with Pleasant Hill, Las Lomas and Acalanes battling it out to the final relay.

On the subject of track, it now looks as if the Pittsburg Pirates, defending county cinder champs, have anything but clear sailing, as far as this year's title is concerned.

Pittsburg has a host of returning lettermen but the big hurdle for county honors looks to be the Diablo Red Devils.

DIABLO COACH Fairclough pulled a clever maneuver when he ran two teams with two schedules in early season. His strength was divided and scores didn't give the true picture of Diablo's strength.

The track dopesters figure the Devils are in at this stage of the game.

It looks to be one of those cases where an illness or injury could play a vital part, along with the unpredictable come-through performances of some while favorites fall by the wayside under the stress of top competition.

IN THE SAME vein, the Acalanes paddlers at the season't start were figured to take the county title for the 12th consecutive time.

Las Lomas Edged By Wolves 3-2

The Las Lomas Knights fell short in the scoring column last Friday when they were defeated by a one-run margin by the San Ramon Wolves, with the final count 3-2. The game was played at Danville.

The Knights started well enough when leadoff batter Ron Fifield walked and then scored when San Ramon's shortstop booted a ball off the bat of Bob Kinyon.

San Ramon came back to tie it up at 1-all with a run of its own in the second frame.

THE SCORE WAS knotted at 1-1 until the top of the fatal seventh, when Kinyon, the first batter, rapped out a single and came scampering home on teammate Doug Potter's single.

The Knights' joy was short-lived, however, when the home club came back with a pair of runs on four singles, to sew up the old ball game.

DICK STANLEY went the route for the Knights on the throwing end, while Don Schuppert was the man behind the mask.

Pizzagoni hurled the win with Schwammel receiving over the seven innings of play.

Pizzagoni was the big sticker as he rapped out a triple, double and single in four tries at the plate.

Knight Swimmers Split Their Meet With Livermore

The Knight swimmers were out in front as far as aggregate score went, in the meet with the Livermore Cowboys last Friday afternoon, but on a team basis the Cowboys took the varsity encounter 50-25, while in the Bee tally it was in reverse order, with Las Lomas posting 47 to Livermore's 19.

Bob Rourke took a first for the Knights in varsity diving and Alf Dahl was a winner in the 150-yard individual medley with a 2:17.

In the Bee division, first place winners for Las Lomas were Tim Biggs in the 50-yard backstroke with a time of 36:6, Curtis Spott in the 100-yard freestyle event in 17.3, Ron Hyde in the diving and Larry Telford with a 1:05.1 in the 75-yard individual medley.

Las Lomas took the relays with a 51.3 in the 75-yard medley and a 1:00 in the 100-yard freestyle event.

The Knight Bees swept two events, paddling 1-2-3 in the 100-yard freestyle and the 75-yard individual medley.

Knight Bees Win Three-Way Meet, Varsity Second

The Knights of Las Lomas took part in a three-way track meet at Crockett April 14 and did all right as the varsity took second while the Bees scored an impressive one-sided win, with John Swett of Crockett and Alhambra of Martinez furnishing the opposition.

Alhambra won the varsity meet with 80 points, Las Lomas had 47 and John Swett brought up the rear with a lowly 11.

In the Bee final tally, it was the Knight Babes all by themselves with 85, John Swett with 32½, and Alhambra with 23½.

VARSITY point-getters for Las Lomas were Bob Karlsrud with a 14.5 in the 120-yard low hurdles and Rick Ostrom with a 24.1 in the 220.

The Knights' relay team, consisting of Rick Ostrom, Russ Nodder, Don Ogden and Bob Karlsrud, took their event, stopping the clocks at 1:32.2.

First place winners in the Bees for the Knights were Ron Smith with a double win, taking the 70-yard highs in 10.9 and touring the 120-yard low barriers in 15.1.

Brad Gaston took honors in the 150 with a 16.5, while Dennis Blocking toured the three-lap 1320 in 3:42.7.

IN THE BEE shot, Dan Van Voorhis cinched tops with 51 feet, 2½ inches and then tied for first in the pole vault at 9 feet even.

Bob Bryan contributed 5 points to the cause when he went 5 feet, 2 inches in the high jump.

Gaston became a double winner as he took the broad jump at 19 feet, one inch.

The Bee relay team of the Knights took the event in 48.5, with Gaston, Ken Byrd, Van Voorhis and Pete Ostrom doing the baton carrying to round out a "well done" afternoon which brought smiles to the faces of Coaches Merrill Callow and George Deklotz.

Don Trackmen Defeat Gauchos

The Acalanes varsity posted a track win April 13 when it outscored the El Cerrito Gauchos 32½-22½ in a meet at the Aaclanes oval.

The El Cerrito visitors had their moment in the sun, however, when they trimmed the Don lightweights 45-15.

The meet was held in the form of a relay, with four men taking part in each event and with 11 events in all.

The Don varsity copped six firsts and had a tie in the pole vault, with four participants going for a combined height of 41 feet.

The Dons' best performance came in the mile relay, with Larry Pilcher, Garry Arel, Gene Bell and Tom Phair touring the distance in 3.38.4.

Knight Baseball Team Scores 1-0 Upset of Diablo

The Las Lomas Knights hit the headlines when they copped an impressive 1-0 upset win over the Diablo Devils April 14 in a ball game at the Walnut Creek diamond.

The victory was the first in league play for the 1955 season and was largely due to the steady pitching of sophomore Joe Sibley, who struck out nine and gave up but five hits in notching the win over the favored Devils.

Steve Cook cracked out two singles in three times at bat while Bob Kinyon was the hero with a second-inning single which he converted into the all-important run by going to second on a pass ball and then scoring on Vern Kenley's single over second.

DIABLO HAD its big moment in the sixth when Ron Baldwin singled only to be thrown out on an attempted steal.

Ray Avasino and Dorsey Allison walked, to put two on, but the next would-be hitter, Bill Littorno, was set down via the strikeout route.

Things were rough for the Knights when Verle Sidwell singled, to load the bases, but it all went for naught when Ed Ulrich was out No. 3, pitcher to first.

DAN COLCHUO singled to open the top of the seventh but Sibley set the next three down in apple pie order.

Diablo had five hits and no errors, while the Knight showed four hits and two errors on the scoreboard.

Don Schuppert caught all the way for the Knights, while southpaw Jerry Robinson threw for Diablo, with Lottorno catching.

Sacramento State will be up against the pitching of ace Ken Neuberger, whose earned run average, 1.28, is the best among the Phoenix mound staff.

Pacing the Phoenix at the plate will be first baseman Clancy Crew. His 14 trips to the plate have produced nine hits and a .643 average.

Both games will be open to the public.

Pirates Defeat Don Nine, 5-4

The Pittsburg Pirates defeated the Acalanes Dons 5-4 in a league baseball game at Acalanes April 14.

With the win went the league lead, as both clubs were undefeated up to last weeks' games.

The game found the Dons trailing 2-0 at the end of two innings, with Pittsburg turning errors in the first and second frames into runs.

IT WAS A new ball game in the fourth, however.

The Dons scored two runs when Jerry Coakley and Andy Fadelli were on via walks and First Baseman Jim Dinkel applied the wood for a single to score the pair and knot the count 2-2.

Pitt got back in the act in the sixth, scoring three runs on two walks and two errors combined with a pass ball.

THE DONS came back to score a pair of their own on a walk and two singles. Two were on and two down when Richard Markstein came to bat. With the count 3 and 2, he hit six foul balls before going down swinging on a third strike.

John Keekley was credited with with th win, giving up six hits and striking out eight. Joe Simo did the receiving.

Richard "Red" Jones did the throwing for the Dons with Andy Fadelli catching.

"Red" gave up but three hits and struck out 14.

In the error column Pitt committed three boots to the Dons' two.

Sparling Shoots Hole-in-One

Twenty years of golfing paid off for Maurice (Mort) Sparling April 13 when he blasted a hole-in-one, his first, at the Diablo Country Club.

The Lafayette Pharmacy owner scored the triumph on the eighth hole. "It's 135 yards, I think, uphill," he said.

Stanley Charm Club Gives Show

Spring arrived in a splash of color Tuesday evening at Stanley School when the Charm and Junior Fashion Club presented a spring fashion show.

The group, comprised of sixth, seventh and eighth grade girls, modeled spring and summer clothing from four Lafayette stores: Claudy's, Fiesta Fashions, Lad and Lass and The Emporium.

Parents were greeted at the door by Bonnie Gallagher, Diane Cadman, Janice Buchannan and Bobbie Robertson.

The stage was decorated in a garden setting. Reads of Concord had contributed garden furniture for the occasion and the girls of the club had made multi-colored flowers and leaves to decorate latticed fences.

HOME FROM COLLEGE

Coed Margaret Roe spent her between-quarters vacation from Oregon State College at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. (Hi) Roe of Legion Court.

A sorority sister of Margaret's, Pat Veach of Portland, spent the week here as a houseguest of the Roes.

Another college friend of the two girls, Bruce Roberts, was a frequent visitor at the Roe home during the holiday week. He came down from Corvallis with the Oregon State crew.

John Kitsinger, formerly of this area but now in the Army and stationed at Camp Beale, also stopped in to see the Roes during the week.

After Margaret returned to Corvallis to start the spring quarter, "Hi" went on a business trip to Los Angeles. Then, after returning home for a day or two, both "Hi" and his wife traveled to Vacaville, Sacramento and Placerville.

However, right now they are both home and have no houseguests—I think!

FRESNO VISIT

Mrs. Paul Gordon and her two children, Mary and Tommy, spent the Easter vacation in Fresno where they visited Mrs. Gordon's mother and several of her sisters and brothers.

AWAY THEY GO

Off again—but this time on a very short trip—are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frock who returned just a few weeks ago from the Far East. This time they are headed for Southern California where they plan to visit a number of relatives and friends.

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

Patrols 1 and 2 of Troop 86 recently staged a play and a dance exhibition in the recreation room of St. Stephen's Church for the edification of adoring parents and an assortment of younger brothers who took full advantage of the situation to (1) keep their mouths shut and feet quiet during the performance (oddly enough) and (2) to open their mouths and put one foot in front of the other in rapid succession, as soon as it was over, so they could move, shove, jerk or push all unnailed-down chairs from one end of the room to the other (which wasn't odd at all).

What's likely to happen at midnight

The play encompassed a series of events likely (?) to have happened at the witching hour of midnight in a Girl Scout camp.

A problem play of misunderstanding, possible disaster and a chocolate cake with peppermint icing.

The director was Miss Sharon Gillespie, the producer Miss Margaret Bodfish. Those involved were Mesdamoiselles Francis Kyle, Carol Knudsen, Louzanne Lang, Caroline Gallatin, Joan Borden, Nancy Grah and Joan Robinson.

Then there was the "Little Brown Gal" as hulaed by the following swaying souls: Mesdamoiselles Marcia Nicolet, Sylvia Bolman, Caroline Schuler, Sally Spott, Cathy Shurtleff, and Deborah Smith.

The Mesdames Eugene Shurtleff, Robert Spott, Frank Wright and Elbert Wayne were responsible, not only for a remarkable supervisional job, but enough coffee and cup cakes to provide a slight profit on subsequent resale of unused portions. Good girls those.

Awhile back, three little girls graduated from Miss Head's school in Berkeley. They went their various ways through life, married, and now two of their daughters are graduating from Miss Head's.

So of course a tea party for them. Mrs. Calvin Duncan was hostess honoring Mrs. Muirson Wright's daughter Marilyn and Mrs. Frank McEneany's daughter Lyn. A very pretty party with Mrs. William Freeman, Jackson Palmer and Miss Sara Tolles pouring and Miss Cecily McEneany at the door. Isn't that a fascinating idea though?

She bowled 'em over at the Garden Club

The ladies and guests of the Orinda Garden Club were positively bowled over recently by a combination of talent and humor which inspired everyone to make stunning arrangements, and have fun while at it.

The audience had no hint of what was to come when the dignified Mrs. J. H. Henderson appeared in navy and white like all spring speakers for ladies clubs should.

Her list of accomplishments and travels were impressive and even SHE thought they might be a little hard to live up to. She started off by tossing around color sheets and material swatches to describe a house and suitable flower arrangements.

At certain unexpected moments a shot of dry Gobel-like humor would dart from her unsmiling mouth and the ladies of the Garden Club were heard to emit muffled snorts not exactly in keeping with the tenor of the occasion. Finally it got to the point where the general appreciation was quite voluble between silences of absorption over her sophisticated and spectacular handiwork. What a speaker for guest day!

A pretty walk through local flora

And whoever wrote "Just Like a Garden in the Rain" should have taken a little jaunt with us on Monday morning. In solitary grandeur we "did" the Garden Club Spring Tour which is to take place officially on Thursday, May 5, from 1 to 4 p.m. Up La Espiral with the wet and sparkling gardens of the Dwight Chapman's, Loomis Wards and C. W. Merrills exhibiting dog wood, azaleas, and baby ivy, around the Orton Lucas corner where the wisteria is so beautiful, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Wallace.

First, an effective hillside planting of hydrangeas, ferns, rhododendrons, camellias, citrus trees and, of all things, ginger and a couple of palms to dramtize a natural stream setting.

The entry was more formal with lawn, bouvardia (right out in the open, too) and fragile blooms. Into the living room done in white, charcoal brown and natural to emphasize the Wallace's collection of African masks, carved figures from Tanganyika (anyone know how to spell that — nobody knew for sure and we couldn't find Wallace junior's stamp collection for verification).

An interesting Philippine water dipper on the hall wall. In the patio is Mr. Wallace's hobby garden of succulents held in position by curious rocks gathered at Virginia City.

Could be gold in "them thar" but you are not supposed to carry your investigations to the point of removal for definite ascertainment.

Then to hit the road again. The rain had come in the open window on the driver's side so we sat in, and leaned on, a puddle; and had to explain yourself to the Clay Sorrick children when we got out of the car.

This is a Georgian Colonial house with giant honeysuckle climbing along the balcony, jasmine on the trellis, great swooping oak branches over a mass of azaleas and a beautiful view of the soft green hills. Two large bay windows set the feeling for the light and airy interior and this is where you will have tea, which is what the ladies of the Garden Club call punch and cookies.

The sun came out, and so did the dogs

Once more on the road and up Camino Don Miguel. By now the sun was out and all the dogs were sitting contentedly on the white line in the middle of the road. This makes for careful driving. To the Milton Selbys, who were tickled to death to see us, having practically just arrived home from an all night involvement with a blizzard on the way back home from Tahoe.

The house is a charm of warmth, with oriental rugs, antique furniture, cozy nooks, beamed ceiling and a surprise factor — a plastic glass-roofed patio room looking out onto an expanse of lawn and colorful flower beds.

Then around the lake to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Freeman to find out what you do about it if you are the parents of three sons and a boxer — very simple, just build a garden house with sliding glass doors looking onto a swimming pool, big fireplace and, behind various camouflaging panels, all equipment for record playing, eating and playing games.

Mamah and Papah may entertain in more formal style in a living room in greys and soft greens accented with lovely oriental pieces. If you would like more information on this loveliest of spring tours call Mrs. Joseph Rupley at CL 4-2577.

New resident —Deborah Allison March landed in town when Sunday morning was very young. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Marsh and Penny and Wally Jr., are delighted with the seven-pound newcomer.

Barn dance shindig will claim many

If you have an emergency call for any of the following tomorrow night we know where you can find them — in a barn in Lafayete — at the Orinda Branch barn dance. A few of the early reservations are: Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Davis, George Horton, Earl Rude, Paul Hammerberg, Joseph Conly, E. Babylon, Alan Grey, G. Willard Miller, Paul Slattery (whoops, that is Dr.) J. That is all.

Young GOP Party Given Tonight

Opening their 1955 membership drive, the Orinda Young Republicans are holding a "champagne party" tonight at the Willows.

The cocktail hour will be from 7 to 9 p.m., with dinner and dancing available throughout the evening.

Don Doyle, assemblyman, 10th district, is on the reception committee and is scheduled to act as one of the hosts for the evening.

Others with Doyle will be John Busterud, president of the state Young Republicans, Dean Noonan, county president, and James Hill, president of the Orinda club.

A year's membership in the local club is $1.50, of which 50 cents supports the county club and 50 cents the state. The remaining 50 cents is deposited in the Orinda Young Republican's fund.

Many Republicans from other areas have joined the Orinda group as associate members and an invitation is extended to all who may wish to attend, according to President Hill.

A donation of $1 per person is requested for tonight's party, Hill said.

Home Department Meets Wednesday

The Orinda Home Department will hold its regular monthly meeting Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Idress Abbott, 20 Sunrise Hill Road.

The meeting will be devoted to a demonstration of pin curls, furniture refinishing and different ways of cooking asparagus.

The public is invited.

NIGHT DRIVING

Driving at night has certain problems, one of which is headlight glare. Don't attempt to reduce the glare of oncoming traffic by wearing sunglasses, warns the California State Atomobile Association. They will reduce your vision below the safe point. Remember, sunglasses are for sun, not headlight glare.

Around Orinda

By BEVERLY HOYT, CL 4-5233

Never underestimate the power of a woman—or perhaps I should say women! When the Fiesta Hut was recently erected the Orinda Garden Club decided it needed some landscaping to make it more attractive to the public.

But something arose that they had not planned on—no water supply to nourish the flowers in the small window boxes. For some time they carried buckets of water back and forth, until all the women decided it was time not to be so self-sufficient.

So the Fire Department was called upon to take over this emergency. Such excitement! From the looks and noise of the fire trucks appearing on the scene, one would think Orinda was doomed to go up in flames.

FALSE ALARM

Everyone rushed out of the stores to the Fiesta Hut to see how much damage had been done—and were completely surprised to see the firemen calmly watering the now famous window boxes.

Never a dull moment in our town!

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mainwaring celebrated their 12th wedding anniversary on the weekend of April 2, by staying at the glamorous El Rancho in Las Vegas. They also took in Billy Eckstine at the Sands.

Also recently, the Dupuis, including their children Nancy and Danny, attended a family reunion in Sunnyvale, where 30 members of the Dupuis family gathered.

MOVING AWAY

A "Moving Away Party" was given for the J. M. Speyers by their neighbors, the Ernest Haynes and the Edmund Wilfords at the Haynes home on El Gavilan.

The Speyers have obtained a home in Lafayette, and those bidding them a fond farewell at the party were the Frank Catalines, Tony Remos, E. C. Roses, D. B. Woodcocks and the Lowell McFaddens.

TO THE SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. C. Freeman Bishop, with their children, Caroline and Scott, motored through Southern California during Easter vacation.

They visited many points of interest in Carmel, Santa Barbara, Arcadia and on to Napa to visit Mrs. Bishop's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Helm.

This has been quite a busy time for the James Dupuis. Recently Mrs. Dupuis entertained, at luncheon, Miss Harriet Michels, who was stopping here between her assignments with the State Department.

She had spent two years in New Delhi, India, and is now with the State Department in Rome.

A trip to Fairyland in Oakland was enjoyed during the Easter vacation by John Chapman, Robert Brain, Gene Tobias and Dale Tobias, accompanied by Mrs. L. M. Chapman and Mrs. F. B. Tobias. Gene Tobias and Donn Chapman enjoyed a fishing trip to Santa Cruz with Ernest Hendricks.

HOME FROM HAWAII

Helen and Ken Mattress on Tara Road have recently returned from a wonderful trip to the Hawaiian Islands. They arrived there on the Lurline, visited several of the islands, and ended their trip by flying home.

At Helen's bridge club a couple of weeks ago, she showed colored movies of the trip, which were enjoyed by all.

BABY SHOWER

A baby shower was given for Betty Madison April 12 by Mrs. Mary Schroeder on Van Ripper Lane.

Those present were Maxine Williams, Virginia Dorn, Ann Mosotto, Lorena Louis, Merlon Howard, Martha Hussey, Molly Gravelle, June Estes, Mrs. Frank Lee and Mrs. De Luca.

Before the shower, an Easter egg hunt was enjoyed by the children of the mothers present.

Snug Harborites To Have Party

The Snug Harbor Association will enjoy a cocktail party tomorrow from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Culbertson, 16 Bobolink Road.

Members and their families have been invited, according to Mrs. Hilbert Seiwert, chairman of the event.

Mrs. Seiwert's committe includes Mesdames Clarence Woodard, Carleton Block and Richard Deibert.

Sterling Smith is president of the association.

California Native Wild Lilacs Prove To Be Very Adaptable for Home Gardens

By THE GARDENER

BRING THE WILD beauty of the California foothills and mountains into your yard and patio by planting Caenothus, or wild lilac, which offers 50 species, varieties and hybrids, 44 species of which are natives of California.

The Ceanothus in many of its species has shown itself to be very adaptable for home gardens.

Some species do better in certain California locales than others, of course. Discovering what species will adapt best to your area will reward you well — for this native grows in forms that make fine ground covers as well as excellent foreground and background shrubs.

A LOW-GROWING variety of the wild lilac, the Carmel Creeper of Ceanothus griseus horizontalis, grows as a native of the central coastal area.

It reaches various heights from 18 to 30 inches, spreading from 5 to 15 feet apart.

This variety tends to mound if planted too closely; space plants 8 feet apart when setting them out.

BLUE BLOSSOMS, Ceanothus thyrsiflorus, grows in the coastal range from Santa Barbara north into Oregon. Its color varies in each area from deep to pale blue and the blooming period varies, too.

Medium height wild lilac varieties include the Santa Barbara Ceanothus and the hybrid Mountain Haze of the San Diego Ceanothus group.

Santa Barbara wild lilac comes from the northwestern part of Santa Barbara County and southern San Luis Obispo County.

THIS VARIETY can be distinguished by its dense branches and dark green wrinkled leaves. Deep blue flowers appear on it from February through April and it reaches a height and width of 3 to 5 feet.

Because it is fast-growing, treat each plant of the Santa Barbara Ceanothus as a perennial with a short garden career, using it for temporary effects.

But you can continue to grow this variety in your garden after one plant has finished by planting seeds or cuttings — sort of a circle process.

DWARF COMPANION to the Sierra Blue San Diego Ceanothus is Mountain Haze, which grows in the 2-to-4-foot range.

Investigate the planting possibilities of the many varied wild lilacs at your nurseryman's and enjoy one of the loveliest of the California natives.

Checklist Says 'Plant Bulbs, Vegetables Now'

Latest Garden Checklist advice is:

1. This is the planting time for tuberous begonias, gladiolus and dahlia bulbs.
2. Plant these vegetables now: Cucumbers, squash, beans, sweet corn, tomatoes, peppers and egg plant. In some localities, protection from late frost should be provided.
3. Ask your nurseryman to tell you about the new chemical soil conditioners — they make gardening easy!
4. Pick up and destroy all camellia flowers which fall on the ground. These frequently harbor disease.
5. If you forgot to plant that shade tree during the winter months, it is still not too late. Your nurseryman probably has shade trees growing in containers which can safely be transplanted now.

Seedlings Can Be Used in Planting Tuberous Begonia

Artistry in flowers — this phrase describes well the result of planting tuberous begonias, for this bulb flower blooms in such a wide variety of colors and unusual forms that each truly seems a work of horticultural art.

Although it is customary to plant begonias by using bulbs or tubers, this flower can be grown quite successfully from seedlings.

Seedlings can be obtained from nurseries all ready to set in the ground.

Seedling tuberous begonia plants will flower in their first season. They can be planted in the ground or in pots of 5 to 6-inch size. A good potting mixture is half sandy loam and half peat moss, with bone meal or organic fertilizer added.

Whether you plant in a container or in the ground, be sure to set the seedlings with the leaves pointing the way you want the blooms to show, for the begonia is a one-way facing plant and the leaves point in that direction.

Reserves Hear Chinese Major

Major Pardee Lowe, of the Air Force Reserve Squadron in Berkeley, and noted authority on the Iron Curtain Countries, returned to the 9441st A.R.S. in Walnut Creek last night, and presented his talk on "Red China."

The major, in addition to serving under General Stillwell, during World War II as an Intelligence Officer in China, has spent more than five years in writing his thesis on this subject. Being of Chinese descent himself, Major Lowe, is able to have better insight and understanding of the people of China than most internationalists.

A short CONAC exercise, number 18, was presented by Lt. M. B. Jaynes, on the same program.

Oakland Garden Show Theme Is Rainbow Waters

Fountains, pools and water in motion will be glorified during the 23rd annual Spring Garden Show which will be staged from April 29 through May 6 in Oakland.

Pursuing the over-all theme of "Rainbow Waters" the 1955 presentation will feature five fountain pools to demonstrate the wide variety of possible uses of water in the home garden.

Innovations found in other departments of the huge floral show include actual "how-to-do-it" demonstrations for gardeners, a $100,000 display of Grandma Moses' paintings, a real playground which may be used by children attending the show and a display of autumn flowers flown in from "down under" by an Australian airline.

Staged in the Oakland Exposition Building, the Oakland Auditorium Arena, Auditorium Theater and adjoining outdoor areas, the production covers five acres of show space. Plans are geared to accommodate more than 100,000 spectators from throughout Northern California and elsewhere.

Church to Host Spring Confab

The Women's Missionary Federation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, Golden Gate Circuit, will hold a spring convention tomorrow.

The host church will be Our Savior's Lutheran Church, 1035 Carol Lane, Lafayette.

Registration will be at 9:30 a.m. and convention time will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., closing with a tea.

Theme will be "Making the Most of Time." The main speaker will be pastor Alton C. Halvorsen, who has been a missionary in Madagascar.

He will highlight his address with the use of three dimensional movies of the work of the missionary field.

Twenty-five churches will be represented.

Christian Science

Man's God-given dominion over the bondage of fear will be discussed at services Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Propation after Death" will include the following from the King James version of the Bible (Hebrews 2:9, 15):

"But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man . . . And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage."

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (426:16).

"When it is learned that disease cannot destroy life, and that mortals are not saved from sin or sickness by death, this understanding will quicken into newness of life. It will master either a desire to die or a dread of the grave, and thus destroy the great fear that besets mortal existence."

Therapy Center Hears Doctor Talk Scoliosis

Daniel O. Kayfetz, M.D., well-known orthopedist, spoke to the staff of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center recently at the Center's quarters on Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

At the Center's request, Dr. Kayfetz spoke on scoliosis, reviewing the various causes and treatment to help afflicted patients.

He stressed the importance of clear understanding and full cooperation of parents in following through with therapeutic exercises as prescribed by the physician.

Democrats Petition for Race Equality

The Central Contra Costa Democrats at a general membership meeting held at Lafayette Community Church announced support of pending FEPC Legislation in Sacramento. The statement follows in part.

We believe that discrimination in any form against any individual for reasons of race, religion, nationality, or color is contrary to the principals of American democracy.

Discrimination in employment is one of the most vicious forms of discrimination because it denies the individual the opportunity to improve his standard of living and the condition of the community in which he lives.

FOR THIS REASON we respectfully petition the Governor and the members of the State Assembly and Senate to enact at the current session Assemblyman Byron Rumford's bill Number AB 971, which will provide means for securing fair employment opportunities for all residents of the State of California.

California contains many minorities against which employment discrimination is practiced.

The platforms of both major parties in California support the principal of Fair Employment Practices.

PRESIDENT OF THE Central Contra Costa Democrats is Robert Hurlbert of Walnut Creek. Vice-presidents are James Keating and Mrs. Sally Hoff; Mrs. Vera Hopkins is secretary and Tom Kendall treasurer.

The above statement was drawn up by a special committee headed by John Saemann. Members of the club are from the Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Danville area of Contra Costa county.

The next general meeting will be held May 17, at the Lafayette Community Methodist Church on Moraga Road. The public is invited.

Workshop Gets Aid from Shell

"Mt. Diablo Therapy Center Sheltered Workshop Annex" is the new sign appearing on the door of the building at 2327 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

The building, which was recently leased by the Therapy Center, houses about 10 handicapped people working on sub-contract jobs. Twelve other workers are also employed in the Sheltered Workshop located in the Center's quarters at 2363 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Newest of the Sheltered Workshop's ventures comes from Shell Chemical Corporation of Pittsburg. Recently, the Workshop started repairing liquid gauges, valves and float arms for the local firm.

The firm believes that with the success of this work other types of work might be made available to the Sheltered Workshop.

Speech Delegates Named at College

Names of five St. Mary's College delegates to the Northern California Forensics Association student congress to be held in May at San Jose State College on the subject of juvenile delinquency today were announced by Charles V. Riker of Lafayette, instructor in English and speech.

St. Mary's representatives will include Edward J. Barabe III, La Crescenta; Gordon B. Grigg, Walnut Creek; Jerry J. Healy, Oakland; Arthur E. Hippler, St. Louis, Mo., and Donald M. Heynen, Redwood Valley.

County Queen Is El Cerrito Girl

Miss Contra Costa County 1955 is Arlyta Lynn Grove, 17, of El Cerrito, an accomplished redheaded equestrienne who breaks and trains her own animals and who is also an ice skater.

Picked from among 18 contestants at judging at the Oakland Willows Friday night, Arlyta will represent Contra Costa at the county and state fairs and other observances and will be the countly's entrant in the state fair's Maid of California contest. The contest was sponsored by the Contra Costa County Development Association.

She will be formally presented at the annual installation dinner of the development association in mid-May at Diablo Country Club before 500 persons.

The winner was greeted by Miss Contra Costa 1954, Miss Barbra Torrey, 20, of Concord, and was crowned and presented with a bouquet of red roses by Supervisor H. L. Cummings, chairman of the Contra Costa board.

William Winter Hits 'Isolation'

Speaking on "The Future of the United Nations" as observed on a six-week tour of Europe and the Middle East, William Winter, television news analyst, stated Saturday that "The world is too small to permit isolation."

Winter spoke at Stanley School, Lafayette, under the auspices of the Diablo and Acalanes Chapters of United World Federalists.

Speaking of his visits to French Morocco, Israel and Egypt, and the unrest in these nations, he observed, "The Middle East crisis could be solved by an outside authority with the power to enforce peace."

"The United Nations does not now have such powers," he went on. "It is in the position of our own government under the Articles of Confederation in our early history when it was an association of individual sovereign governments, each jealous of its own sovereignty.

"We are now in a world of anarchy with no sovereignty. In a world federation of government of the peoples of the world, each nation must give up sovereignty in the interest of world peace," he said.

Ray's Has New Shoe Outlet in Lafayette Now

Adding a third store—this one in Lafayette—to those in Concord and Walnut Creek is an apparent sign of growth and success on the part of Ray's Shoe Outlet.

The Lafayette store is at 3566 Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

The Ray's Shoe Outlet operation is a family affair, including the father, Raymond J. Fritsch, his wife, and the son, Raymond A. Fritsch.

Also connected with the thriving business is an uncle, Carl H. Fritsch of Lafayette.

The outlet handles shoes, bags and hosiery. The extensive shoe line at low prices is made possible through the purchase of factory cancellations, the Fritsches explain.

"It's all strictly new and quality merchandise, too," they add.

The younger Fritsches, who make their home in Pleasant Hill at 101½ Price Lane, are expecting their "first little Fritsch" by the end of June.

PTA Holds Council on TV

Curiosity, fears, the anger habit, jealousies and finally happiness were dramatized Sunday when 32nd district, California Congress of Parents and Teachers presented "Children's Emotions" over KPIX-TV.

Episodes showed how children's reactions to the same situation change as they grow older—"Children's emotions at various ages up to 10 years were illustrated when scenes were appropriately presented from the small childs point of view," said Mrs. Andrew Gianotti, president 32nd district, CCPT, who emceed the show.

Park Council to See Film, Slides Of Park Systems

"Benefits of a Good Park System" will be the subject of a talk by Mr. Ralph Shaw at the next public meeting of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council to be held in Orinda in the Orinda Community Church, fellowship hall, Thursday at 8 p.m.

Shaw, superintendent of parks in San Mateo County, will show a sound film in color, produced by Stanford University, of parks located in San Mateo County.

In view of the fact that just five years ago San Mateo County and Contra Costa County had the same population, it should be interesting to find out how San Mateo County has acquired 2000 acres of parks compared to the 80 acres of Contra Costa County.

Chairman will be William Penn Mott, superintendent of the Oakland Park System, and past president of the American Institute of Park executives. Ed Clay will show beautiful color slides of park sites, including some new slides of the Briones area taken by Jim Hokanson.

Discontent Is Often Key To Major Human Progress

Contentment can be a marvelous state of mind.

It is one of the basic ingredients of happiness. It is a state of mind in which one has no criticism to make of anything—everything is entirely satisfactory.

But it is in this state of mind that a real danger exists.

The kind of contentment that is willing to accept things as they are means accepting the bad as well as the good.

It is not the contented people who add to the sum of human knowledge or who explore the new paths of sciences, invention, medicine and the arts.

Human prograss comes from the right kind of discontentment. We would not be a nation were it not for the people who were discontented with "taxation without representation."

The North American continent would never have been settled had it not been for people who were discontented with government restrictions, economic servitude, religious oppression in their home countries. To say nothing of those who were discontented at being where they were and just wanted to go some place else.

Somebody once said, "Discontent is the first step to the progress of a nation or of a man."

There is a lot of truth in that. Education grew out of discontent with not knowing. Our standards of living, our labor saving devices had their start in the minds of the discontented. The washing machine, from the very crude ones of 50 years ago, came into being because someone was discontented with washing clothes by hand.

The automobile came about because someone was discontented with moving along at the slow pace of a horse.

We can think of nothing that has added to the well-being of the human race that has not come about because someone was discontented with conditions as they were and decided to change them.

What They Say . . .

'Lift That Brush, Tote That Hammer'

Peering out from behind paint-specked glasses and displaying swollen thumbs from errant hammers, our researchers posed the week's question.

In a "misery loves company" mood, they asked:

"ARE YOU PLANNING a paint-up and fix-up program at home this year? What is the program to consist of?"

Here are some of the answers:

David A. Clarke Jr., 36 Owl Hill Road, Orinda, said, "We're not planning much this year because we just moved into a new house. The 'fix-up' will be whatever landscaping I can get done."

The energetic Gilligans' "paint-up, fix-up" program is a continuing thing. "My husband is always working around the house," said Mrs. Eugene C. Gilligan of 31 Ardor Drive, Orinda. She added, "He just built some shelves for the boys' bedroom and repainted it."

ONE OF THE lucky ones is Otis M. Smith of 3606-D Bickerstaff Street, Lafayette. "We live in an apartment," he said. When asked if he missed the opportunity to "putter" around the house, he answered, "Well, no. I don't look forward to any of the fixing-up."

Mrs. Felipe Orallo of 1280 Pleasant Hill Road, Lafayette, said, "We painted the house last summer and really don't have any program planned for this year. With three children around the house it's pretty difficult to do much. They get in the way quite a bit."

Mrs. John Sandman of 29 Norman Court, Walnut Creek, was pleased to say, "We've just bought an attractive new home that needs no work to be done on it at all. Of course, we will do a little landscaping about the house."

"What with the new arrival in our home," exclaimed Mrs. George Gessling of 1620 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, "—we won't have time to attend to much but perhaps a bit of gardening."

Mrs. Homer Hartline of 89 North Pleasant Hill Road, Pleasant Hill, laughed and said, "Oh, just the annual washing of windows, cleaning up and touch-up painting where it's required."

"As soon as we get back from our son's June wedding in Milwaukee," said Mrs. Dick Larscheid of 1876 Elinore Drive, Pleasant Hill, "we will attend to brick lining and re-landscaping the front yard. The back yard is looking just fine."

NO 'TAG' GAME

Civil Defense identification tags are not only for H-Bomb emergencies. The tags can make day-to-day living safer for everyone. They are an important safety measure — helpful in cases of accident, sudden illness or lost children. Each tag is imprinted with the wearer's name plus the name and address of the person to be notified in case of emergency.

Community Concert Group To Hear American Soprano

American Soprano Saramae Endich will be heard as the final artist in this season's concert series of the Acalanes Community Concert Association at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday at the Acalanes High School auditorium.

Miss Endich is one of the most important discoveries of the celebrated Berkshire Music Festival at Tanglewood, to which she was sent on a scholarship and at which she distinguished herself and established a most enviable reputation.

Recognition of her talents has come from the Marian Anderson award, the Hour of Music, the Brooklyn Academy of Music, and Young Artist Series among others.

On May 9, the Acalanes Concert Association will open its week long drive for memberships for next year's concert series.

Local chairman and workers will be announced soon.

H.S. Trustees Okay Summer Pools Use

Acalanes Union High School District trustees have approved community summer use of the Acalanes and Las Lomas High School swimming pools.

The Red Cross will conduct "How To Swim" classes at the Acalanes pool week day mornings, while the district supervisors recreational swimming in the afternoons. The Las Lomas pool will feature swimming classes in the morning with recreational swimming in the afternoon under the supervision of the Walnut Creek Recreation Commission.

Anthony Lagiss, owner of property on the Pleasant Hill Highway appeared before trustees to explain his plans for proposed retail business zoning on property facing the Acalanes High School. School trustees reiterated their earlier stand opposing retail business zoning in the proximity of the high schools on the grounds that such zoning would create a safety hazard for students crossing the highway, emphasizing that retail businesses near schools often lead to formation of undisciplined student hangouts.

School trustees received bids for two school busses but postponed action for further study. Bids totaling $16,943 from six firms were accepted for furniture and equipment primarily for the new Miramonte High School in Orinda and Las Lomas High in Walnut Creek.

The high school board agreed to grant a nineteen foot strip on the westerly boundary of Las Lomas High to the City of Walnut Creek with the consideration that the city repair the roadway at the entrance to the school.

Trustees discussed the proposal to allow the Acalanes District to borrow up to $600,000 from the state for the purchase of an additional school site or sites. The proposal will appear on the ballot May 20, the same date as the trustee election for the district.

School officials describe the loan as a "long-range economy move," stating that purchase of needed school sites now is necessary before continued development in the area boosts site costs to extremes, and before such development engulfs the decreasing number of suitable sites that are still available.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

In a recent article in The SUN on the new county cemetery ordinance you said that opposition to the ordinance "was led primarily by Attorney Richard Townsend" and mentioned that the ordinance "had the backing of the Planning League."

For the public record may we once again point out that both the Contra Costa County Women's Planning Council and the Emergency Committee for Master Planning vigorously opposed this ordinance. Furthermore, it is not clear whether the letter written from the Planning League backing the cemetery ordinance was based on a vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors of the league or was the action of a subcommittee or individuals wthin the league.

We have yet to hear any arguments which establish this ordinance AS A MEASURE DESIGNED TO FURTHER SOUND PLANNING PRACTICE IN CONTRA COSTA COUNTY.

WE DID CONSIDERABLE research in connection with this ordinance and found that in essence it was a measure designed to beneterests and can be justified on no fit the commercial cemetery in-other grounds. To date information has been received from 25 counties in California and ALL indicated that cemeteries should not be allowed to occupy good residential property, whether that property was in the process of development or as yet unused.

Under this ordinance the discretion for determining whether a cemetery shall be allowed in a residential area is left up to the Planning Commission. We predict that many residential communities will have to wage long battles against powerful commercial cemetery interest and many potentially beautiful residential areas, such as the Reliez Valley, will be permanently blighted due to this ordinance.

SUCH SHORT-SIGHTED and unsound planning practice reflects upon the Planning Commission and Board of Supervisors.

Despite the arbitrary action of the supervisors in overriding public opposition, it remains apparent that cemeteries should not be allowed to usurp potentially good residential property. Cemeteries belong in TOPOGRAPHICALLY ISOLATED AREAS WITH ACCESS FROM MAIN CIRCULATION ROUTES rather than through residential developments. Under no condition should they be allowed in residential zones. This ordinance marks a step backward for planning in Contra Costa County.

Board of Directors,
CONTRA COSTA COUNTY
WOMEN'S PLANNING
COUNCIL.

Diablo Choral to Feature Soloist

The Diablo Choral Group under the direction of Nico Snell is readying itself for the thirteenth Annual Spring Concert to be given next Saturday, 8 p.m. at Acalanes High School.

Artist guest Robert Lancaster will not be able to perform. However, the group has engaged James Standard, a new bass-baratone in the Bay Area.

Standard attended LA Conservatory of Music. He was then afforded a two year scholarship at Music Academy of the West in Santa Barbara. It was here that Mme. Lotte Lehman heard him. He is still studying with this fine artist.

Standard will sing two groups of solos and accompany the Choral Group in a special arrangement of Jerome Kern numbers. Subscription to the concert is 75 cents. Tickets may be purchased at Pillsbury's or Reilly's on Main Street, Walnut Creek and also at the door the night of concert.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

It could happen to your son

What should be done about high school students drinking liquor? The problem is increasing and it is certainly time for action. This is a problem for parents, school, church, local organizations, law enforcement agencies and every citizen.

But a starting point could be at the high school, where the social program does not seem adequate to meet teenagers' needs. During the fall football season and winter basketball season there are very few dances held. Why? Because there is a league rule that a dance cannot be held after a sports event. Why? Beacause of possible fights and disturbances, say school officials who established the rule.

What about the spring months? Well, very few dances—without any stated reason.

So what can kids do? Get into cars and dash around . . . go to parties . . . crash parties . . . throw beer busts . . . go to a movie . . . dance at a local night spot, all of which sell liquor. Granted, I'm painting a dreary picture. Many high school students are extremely busy and don't get into trouble. But most need a much better social program than offered by our communities.

I cannot understand the reasoning for the no-dance policy of the high schools. Are our kids so rough and tough they can't be controlled? Are our faculty and parents so inept they can't adequately chaperone a dance? Do our high school faculties really believe that an occasional dance (say once a month) is sufficient?

Let's change the record

At this point, let me interject this statement: If the above sounds like you've heard it before—YOU HAVE. About six years ago, The SUN first discussed the need for an expanded high school social program. We brought it up two years ago and again last November in this column.

The drinking problem is probably worse today than six years ago or last November. And we don't seem to be nearer a solution.

Last Saturday night sheriff deputies and liquor enforcement officers raided the Motor-In Theater in Pleasant Hill for minors drinking. Of the youngsters drinking beer, only 12 were held and finally only one was taken to court. You can read the details in the news section. The judge gave this one youth a six month's term—but with 90 days to be spent in jail. The judge, however, is reconsidering the jail sentence.

This could very easily be your son. He is an intelligent boy from a very fine family. He has all the advantages (and disadvantages) of an upper income family. His parents are community leaders and I think have been very good parents.

He is only one of hundreds who might have been caught.

What is the answer?

Is the answer an expanded social program at the high schools? It certainly is not the entire answer. If high schools sponsored a dance every night, there still will be students going in other directions. Nevertheless, I am convinced that the first need should be filled by the school, in cooperation with parents and community. (A move in the right direction is in the monthly dance co-sponsored by the Walnut Creek Elks and Walnut Creek Recreation program.)

Last Saturday night there was not one school function in the entire area for students. Let's look at the dance schedule of our local high schools. The pattern seems to be one a month. We called the schools today and were given these dates for dances:

Las Lomas: February 11, March 18 and April 1.
Acalanes: February 11, March 11 and April 15.
Pleasant Hill: March 18 and April 15, with an average of one a month.

Remember, in the Spring, dance dates do not conflict with sports events. Do you think that one dance per month is enough to offer our peppy high school students?

I am certain there are some weaknesses in my argument, but don't you agree that our high schools are not meeting the needs of our students?

Since Founding in 1900, Utah Company Has Performed Many Projects in State

(This is the second of a series of articles on Utah Construction Company. The articles are being presented by The SUN in view of the tremendous interest in Utah Company's proposed Moraga development.)

UTAH CONSTRUCTION Company was incorporated in Utah in January, 1900, when David Eccles, Thomas Dee and other Utah financiers poined forces with the Wattis Brothers and founded the firm.

Their original investment was only $24,000.

Six years later A. H. Christensen, a competitor, joined the company, and additional sales of stock increased Utah's subscribed capital to $310,000.

THE MANAGEMENT of Utah remains in the hands of the descendants of the original founders.

Marriner S. Eccles, son of David Eccles, one of the original founders, is chairman of the board and for many years was chairman of the board of governors of the Federal Reserve Bank.

Utah Construction Company is no stranger to California.

Utah, in 1904, started work for the construction of the Western Pacific Railroad from Salt Lake City to Oakland, at which time it first established an office in California and has been operating in the state without interruption since that time.

Many major projects have been completed, covering all types of engineering and construction work. Some of the principal undertakings consisted of:

TUNNELS AND hundreds of miles of railroad construction for both Western Pacific and Southern Pacific Railroad Companies. ....

O'Shaughnessy Dam at Hetch Hetchy, Calif., for the City of San Francisco.

Tunnels, concrete siphons and canals on the aqueduct between Parker Dam and Los Angeles for the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California.

CONCRETE CANALS, siphons, weirs and other related work for United State Bureau of Reclamation.

Numerous highway jobs at various locations for the state of California.

Tunnels, dams and powerhouse for Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

Processing plants at Vallejo and Lodi for General Mills, Inc.

ZINC FUMING plant for American Smelting and Refining Company.

In joint venture with others, Utah Construction Company was engaged in the construction of the Union Square garage, San Francisco; additions to Columbia Steel Company mill at Pittsburg and the Oakland-San Francisco Bay Bridge.

Utah Construction Company, operated one of the largest ranches in the country until 1945.

THE COMPANY had a 7000-acre ranch near Oakdale, Calif. The balance of its properties were located in northeastern Nevada and comprised approximately 439,000 acres.

Utah Construction Company played a leading part in the Six Companies, Inc., which built the Hoover Dam.

THE COMPANY held a 20 per cent interest in the Six Companies and only McDonald and Kahn held an interest as large as that of Utah Construction Company.

Utah Constructoin Company provided the early leadership.

The first president of the Six Companies was W. H. Wattis and the third president was E. O. Wattis.
